Astronomische Nachrichten / Astronomical Notes (AN) is published in an online only format.

Print subscription and single-issue sales are available from Wiley's Print-on-Demand Partner. To order online click through to the ordering portal from the journal's Subscribe and Renew page.

1. SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Papers published in AN shall present the results of original research not previously published. Articles submitted to AN should meet these criteria and must not be under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Papers must be written in English. While a polished literary style is not demanded of scientific papers, they should conform to the elementary rules of grammar, syntax, and punctuation. All papers are being sent to referees. There are no page charges.

NEW: Once the submission materials have been prepared in accordance with the Author Guidelines, manuscripts should be submitted online via the web-based submission and reviewing system ScholarOne Manuscripts.

Steps for Using the Online Submission System

On the journal's homepage, click the 'Submit an Article' option on the right-hand side menu to open the ScholarOne Manuscripts homepage or use the link ScholarOne Manuscript Submission.

1. Please check first whether you already have an account. If you are unsure, or have forgotten your password, follow the instructions on the log-in screen.
2. If you're a first-time user, use the 'Create An Account' link to create an account.
3. The submitting author (only) is required to provide an ORCID ID when submitting their manuscript.

4. Log-in and select "Author".
5. Click the "Start New Submission" link.
6. Enter data and answer questions as prompted.
7. Click on the "Save & Continue" button on each screen to save your work and advance to the next screen.
8. You are required to upload your files (for instructions on file types see section 2):
 - Click on the "Select File" button and locate the file on your computer.
 - Select the designation of each file in the drop-down menu next to the "Select File" button.
 - When you have selected all files you wish to upload, click the "Upload Selected Files" button.
 - To finish the file upload step click on the "Save & Continue" button at the end of the page.
9. Review your submission (in PDF format) before sending to the Editors. To finish your submission click the "Submit" button.

Be sure to enter all of your funder and grant information during the details & comments step. This helps us ensure you meet all of your funder requirements.

If assistance is needed, please contact the Managing Editors (an@aip.de) or the publisher (ASNA@wiley.com).

For article templates, forms and other author resources, please visit the Author Guidelines.

Data Protection

By submitting a manuscript to or reviewing for this publication, your name, email address, and affiliation, and other contact details the publication might require, will be used for the regular operations of the publication. Please review Wiley's Data Protection Policy to learn more.

Article Preparation Support

Wiley Editing Services offers expert help with English Language Editing, as well as translation, manuscript formatting, figure illustration, figure formatting, and graphical abstract design – so you can submit your manuscript with confidence. Also, check out our resources for Preparing Your Article for general guidance about writing and preparing your manuscript.

Open Access

This journal offers authors an open access option. You will have the option to choose to make your article open access after acceptance, which will be subject to an APC. Some organizations pay APCs for their authors via a Wiley Open Access Account. You can read more about APCs and whether you may be eligible for waivers or discounts, through your institution, funder, or a country waiver.

Preprint Policy

Astronomische Nachrichten / Astronomical Notes accepts articles previously published on preprint servers. The journal will consider for review articles previously available as preprints. You may also post the submitted version of a manuscript to a preprint server at any time. You are requested to update any pre-publication versions with a link to the final published article. Please find the Wiley preprint policy here.

Data Sharing and Data Availability

This journal encourages data sharing. Authors are asked to provide a data availability statement to describe the availability or the absence of shared data. When data have been shared, authors are required to include in their data availability statement a link to the repository they have used, and to cite the data they have shared. Whenever possible the scripts and other artefacts used to generate the analyses presented in the paper should also be publicly archived. If sharing data compromises ethical standards or legal requirements then authors are not expected to share it.

Review Wiley's Data Sharing policy where you will be able to see and select the data availability statement that is right for your submission.

Data Citation

Please review Wiley's Data Citation policy.

Funding

You should list all funding sources in the Acknowledgments section. You are responsible for the accuracy of their funder designation. If in doubt, please check the Open Funder Registry for the correct nomenclature.

Authorship

All listed authors should have contributed to the manuscript substantially and have agreed to the final submitted version. Review editorial standards and scroll down for a description of authorship criteria.

ORCID

This journal recommends ORCID. Please refer to Wiley's resources on ORCID.

Reproduction of Copyright Material

If excerpts from copyrighted works owned by third parties are included, credit must be shown in the contribution. It is your responsibility to also obtain written permission for reproduction from the copyright owners. For more information visit Wiley's Copyright Terms & Conditions FAQ. The corresponding author is responsible for obtaining written permission to reproduce the material "in print and other media" from the publisher of the original source, and for supplying Wiley with that permission upon submission.

2. PREPARING YOUR SUBMISSION

File Types

LaTeX files should be prepared using the AN journal stylefile. The LaTeX template can be downloaded here: AN LaTeX template.zip.

In exceptional cases also accepted:

- LaTeX files coded with any other class without particular packages or definitions. You are free to use the generic template available via the Authorea platform for preparing your manuscript.
- Submissions in Word format. A generic Word template can be found here.

LaTeX Submission

Initial submission: LaTeX manuscripts must be submitted as a PDF generated from the source files, fonts included, no T3 fonts allowed. You must use the File Designation "Main Document" from the dropdown box. At this stage, further source files are not required.

Revision: When submitting your revision you must still upload a separate PDF that you have generated from your revised source files. You must use the File Designation "Main Document" from the dropdown box.

Important: Please note that when uploading a revised version of your files you need to delete the previous version first.

In addition, you must upload your TeX source files. For all your source files you must use the File Designation "LaTeX source files".

Please be aware that the source LaTeX code will be converted to XML, as this is an essential prerequisite for online publication. The XML version will then be used to create the final output in the final layout.

Figures

Figures should preferably be submitted in full color but should also be easily readable on a black/white printout. Color figures are reproduced in color at no cost.

LaTeX authors are welcome to include their figures and graphics as PostScript-files (*.eps) using the graphicx package. Each EPS file should be one page only (multipage files are unacceptable).

Alternatively, upload each figure as a separate file in either TIFF, EPS or JPG format. Compound figures e.g. 1a, b, c should be uploaded as one figure. Tints are not acceptable. Lettering must be of a reasonable size that would still be clearly legible upon reduction, and consistent within each figure and set of figures. Where a key to symbols is required, please include this in the artwork itself, not in the figure legend.

Click here for the basic figure requirements for figures submitted with manuscripts for initial peer review, as well as the more detailed post-acceptance figure requirements.

Keywords

Papers have to be accompanied by key words. These are published together with the paper and must be chosen from the current list of keywords (up to five items).

Acknowledgments

Contributions from anyone who does not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed, with permission from the contributor, in an Acknowledgments section. Financial and material support should also be mentioned. Thanks to anonymous reviewers are not appropriate.

References

List all authors, but if the number exceeds seven please list three followed by "et al".

Footnotes

Footnotes can be placed at the foot of each page. They should be referred to in the text with consecutive, superscript Arabic numerals. Keep footnotes brief; they should contain only short comments tangential to the main argument of the paper and should not include references.

Tables

Tables should be self-contained and complement, not duplicate, information contained in the text. They should be supplied as editable files, not pasted as images. Legends should be concise but comprehensive - the table, legend, and footnotes must be understandable without reference to the text.

All abbreviations must be defined in footnotes. Footnote symbols: †, ‡, §, ¶ should be used (in that order) and *, ,  should be reserved for P-values. Statistical measures such as SD or SEM should be identified in the headings.

Appendices

Appendices will be published after the references. For submission they should be supplied as separate files but referred to in the text.

Supporting Information

Supporting information is information that is not essential to the article but provides greater depth and background. It is hosted online and appears without editing or typesetting. It may include tables, figures, videos, datasets, etc. Note: if data, scripts, or other artefacts used to generate the analyses presented in the paper are available via a publicly available data repository, authors should include a reference to the location of the material within their paper.

Supplementary material can be cited as part of the original article e.g.

[enter citation here]. see online supporting information S1-S5.

You may include captions for supplementary figures, tables or videos at the end of your manuscript.

Please use suitable compression technology to avoid exceedingly large movie files (>10 MB) for the benefit of referees' and readers' bandwidth and storage capacity. Also, please make sure that your movies are saved in a common format (such as MPEG, AVI, QuickTime, GIF) that can be played on at least two different computer platforms (out of Windows/ MacOS/ Linux).

Please choose the File Designation "Supporting Information for Review" on the File Upload screen.

Peer Review

This journal operates under a single-blind peer review model. Papers will only be sent to review if the Editors determines that the paper meets the appropriate quality and relevance requirements.

All contributions will be evaluated according to the standard procedures of peer review. To facilitate the refereeing process, you may provide the names and email addresses of referees capable of reviewing your manuscript. Please make sure that the suggested referees are not too closely related to your own publications.

Wiley's policy on the confidentiality of the review process is available here.

Guidelines on Publishing and Research Ethics in Journal Articles

The journal requires that you include in the manuscript details IRB approvals, ethical treatment of human and animal research participants, and gathering of informed consent, as appropriate. You will be expected to declare all conflicts of interest, or none, on submission. Please review Wiley's policies surrounding human studies, animal studies, clinical trial registration, biosecurity, and research reporting guidelines.

This journal follows the core practices of the Committee on Publication Ethics \(COPE\) and handles cases of research and publication misconduct accordingly (<https://publicationethics.org/core-practices>).

This journal uses iThenticate's CrossCheck software to detect instances of overlapping and similar text in submitted manuscripts.

Read Wiley's Top 10 Publishing Ethics Tips for Authors and Wiley's Publication Ethics Guidelines.

3. AFTER ACCEPTANCE

First Look

After your paper is accepted, your files will be assessed by the editorial office to ensure they are ready for production. You may be contacted if any updates or final files are required. Otherwise, your paper will be sent to the production team.

Copyright and Licensing

When an accepted article is received by Wiley's production team, the corresponding author will receive an email asking them to login or register with Wiley Author Services. The corresponding author will be asked to complete a license agreement on behalf of all authors. Authors may choose to publish under the terms of the journal's standard copyright agreement, or Open Access under the terms of a Creative Commons License.

Standard re-use and licensing rights vary by journal. Note that certain funders mandate a particular type of CC license be used. This journal uses the CC-BY/CC-BY-NC/CC-BY-NC-ND Creative Commons License. Please click here for more information on Wiley's compliance with specific Funder Open Access Policies.

Open Access fees: Authors who choose to publish with open access will be charged a fee. A list of Article Publication Charges for Wiley journals is available here.

Self-Archiving Definitions and Policies: Note that the journal's standard copyright agreement allows for self-archiving of different versions of the article under specific conditions. Please click here for more detailed information about self-archiving definitions and policies.

Proofs

Authors will receive an e-mail notification with a link and instructions for accessing HTML page proofs online. Authors should also make sure that any renumbered tables, figures, or references match text citations and that figure legends correspond with text citations and actual figures. Proofs must be returned within 48 hours of receipt of the email.

Early View

The journal offers rapid publication via Wiley's Early View service. Early View (Online Version of Record) articles are published on Wiley Online Library before inclusion in an issue. Note there may be a delay after corrections are received before the article appears online. Once the article is published on Early View, no further changes to the article are possible. The Early View article is fully citable and carries an online publication date and DOI for citations.

Author Name Change Policy

In cases where authors wish to change their name following publication, Wiley will update and republish the paper and redeliver the updated metadata to indexing services. Our editorial and production teams will use discretion in recognizing that name changes may be of a sensitive and private nature for various reasons including (but not limited to) alignment with gender identity, or as a result of marriage, divorce, or religious conversion. Accordingly, to protect the author's privacy, we will not publish a correction notice to the paper, and we will not notify co-authors of the change. Authors should contact the journal's Editorial Office with their name change request.

4. COVER IMAGES

Astronomical Notes accepts artwork submissions for Cover Images. This is an optional service you can use to help increase article exposure and showcase your research. The cover image size is 148mm width by 112mm height.

1. Images that contain text and line art (graphs, charts, maps, etc.) will reproduce best if saved as EPS or PDF. Please remember to embed fonts. This ensures that any text reproduces exactly as you intend.
2. Images that contain photographic information are best saved as TIFF or PNG, as this ensures that all data are included in the file. JPEG should be avoided if possible, as information is lost during compression; however, it is acceptable for purely photographic subjects if the image was generated as a JPEG from the outset.
3. Microsoft Office: If you have generated your images in Microsoft Office software (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), or similar software, it is best to send us the files in their native file formats.
4. Please ensure all images are a minimum of 600 dpi.
5. Please also submit a short description of the image or the work it represents.
6. As this is a publishing service for authors, we do ask authors to contribute to the publication costs (see the CCC form).

For more information please contact the publisher at ASNA@wiley.com. Guidelines on cover artwork can be found in our Guide for Cover Submissions:

5. APPENDIX

Publication Charges

Color figures are published online free of charge.

Conflict of Interest

The journal requires that all authors disclose any potential sources of conflict of interest. Any interest or relationship, financial or otherwise that might be perceived as influencing an author's objectivity is considered a potential source of conflict of interest. These must be disclosed when directly relevant or directly related to the work that the authors describe in their manuscript. Potential sources of conflict of interest include, but are not limited to: patent or stock ownership, membership of a company board of directors, membership of an advisory board or committee for a company, and consultancy for or receipt of speaker's fees from a company. The existence of a conflict of interest does not preclude publication. If the authors have no conflict of interest to declare, they must also state this at submission. It is the responsibility of the corresponding author to review this policy with all authors and collectively to disclose with the submission ALL pertinent commercial and other relationships.

Authorship

The list of authors should accurately illustrate who contributed to the work and how. All those listed as authors should qualify for authorship according to the following criteria:

- 1 Have made substantial contributions to conception and design, or acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; and
- 2 Been involved in drafting the manuscript or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and
- 3 Given final approval of the version to be published. Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for appropriate portions of the content; and
- 4 Agreed to be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.
- 5 Contributions from anyone who does not meet the criteria for authorship should be listed, with permission from the contributor, in an Acknowledgments section (for example, to recognize contributions from people who provided technical help, collation of data, writing assistance, acquisition of funding, or a department chairperson who provided general support). Prior to submitting the article all authors should agree on the order in which their names will be listed in the manuscript.

Additional Authorship Options: Joint first or senior authorship: In the case of joint first authorship, a footnote should be added to the author listing, e.g. 'X and Y should be considered joint first author' or 'X and Y should be considered joint senior author.'

6. POST PUBLICATION, PROMOTION

When the article is published online,

- The author receives an email alert (if requested).
- The link to the published article can be shared through social media.
- The author will have free access to the paper (after accepting the Terms & Conditions of use, they can view the article).
- The corresponding author and co-authors can nominate up to ten colleagues to receive a publication alert and free online access to the article.

Promoting the Article: To find out how to best promote an article, click here.
